

MEDIA INFORMATION
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 15, 2013

Career Center to offer Summer Computer Camps

JACKSON, Mich. – Jackson Area Career Center will offer two summer camps for students interested in computer gaming and programming.

Students and parents will find these computer camps will help young people to improve their computer skills while exploring careers in information technology through fun, “hands-on” projects and demonstrations.

The deadline for Career Center Summer Camp registration is June 7. Students and parents can find camp registration forms at www.jacc-mi.net. For more information, go online or call Delinda Woods at 768-5226.

The 2013 Career Center Summer Computer Camps include:

Smart Gadgets

---

When: July 15-19, Monday-Friday, 8:00 am to 4:00 pm
Where: Jackson Area Career Center Computer Gaming Classroom
Who: For students entering grades 8-12 in fall 2013
What: Explore electronic circuits, computer programming, arduino controller basics, and create smart gadgets
Cost: $35, or $100 if camper wants to keep the SparkFun kit

Game Programming

---

When: July 22 – 26, Monday-Friday, 8:00 am to 4:00 pm
Where: Jackson Area Career Center Computer Gaming Classroom
Who: For students entering grades 8-12 in fall 2013
What: Learn to make games with Python programming and Rasberry Pi, manage files, and software installation.
Cost: $35, or $65 if camper wants to keep the supply kit

###

CONTACTS:

Steve Keinath
Computer Information Technology Instructor
Jackson Area Career Center
(517) 990-6627
stephen.keinath@jcisd.org

Cindy Lyons
Communications and Career Prep Coordinator
Jackson Area Career Center
(517) 768-5211
cindy.lyons@jcisd.org