Official Course Description: This is an intensive writing course. Narrative and descriptive modes are stressed. Basic research strategies are introduced. An end-of-the-semester portfolio is required.

Continued Description: Learners study and engage phases of the writing process, the impact of the rhetorical situation on communication choices, and Modern Language Association (MLA) style and conventions as they engage studies of memoire, profile, and report genres. The course requires participation in discussions, activities, and guided peer review. Standard English grammar and structures are requisite skills in this course and must be practiced in all informal and formal writing.

Instructor Role: My primary role is as a professional reader and responder. I will provide you with direct instruction plus expert formative and summative evaluations of your prose.
Learner Role: Independent and Collaborative

- Learner success relies on the ability to plan, prepare, study, and engage phases of the writing process, to apply global and local essay strategies, critical thinking skills, research strategies, and peer response skills.
- Learners will compose three major essays plus a reflective letter on work accomplished this semester. Essays will be accompanied by a title page and, when sources are used, a Works Cited page. Specific page lengths are defined in essay assignments.
- Learners will apply active reading strategies to assigned course materials and can expect to read multiple chapters from the text as well as supplemental materials and essays by peers.
- Learners need to plan to spend at least nine [9] hours a week on the course, including assigned readings, collaborative discussions, and individual writings.

General Education Outcome: The course goals and objectives incorporate a specific General Education Outcomes (GEO) established by the JCC Board of Trustees, administration, and faculty. These goals are in concert with four-year colleges, universities, and reflect input from the professional communities we serve. Jackson College’s GEOs guarantee students achieve goals necessary for graduation credit, transferability, and professional skills needed in many certification programs. The GEOs and course learning objectives addressed in this class include the following:

- GEO 1: Writing Clearly, Concisely, and Intelligibly (Developing)

Individual Essays—45% total (15% for each essay)
Participation, including, peer critiques: 15%
Portfolio, plus reflective letter: 40%

Grading Scale:

4.0 = 92-100
3.5 = 86-91
3.0 = 80-85
2.5 = 75-79
2.0 = 70-74
1.5 = 66-69
1.0 = 60-65
0.5 = 55-59
0.0 = 50-54

HQV Grading: Students will receive HQV grades as required by the College. An H grade means the instructor perceives you need extra help; a V grade means the instructor views your attendance, class participation and completed work as acceptable. A Q grade means the student has been withdrawn from the class, generally due to attendance issues. After mid-semester, the instructor cannot drop you from any class.

Attendance Policy and Course Rules: I expect you to attend all scheduled class sessions. Acceptable absences include illness or family emergencies with prior consultation whenever possible. After three absences, I retain the right to drop you from the class.

- Withdraw: After the add/drop period, a student may withdraw from a course in accordance with the dates published in e-services.
- Incomplete Policy: In accordance with JCC policy, an Incomplete or “I” grade is only issued to students who have demonstrated good standing in the class and hold a passing grade at the time of an extenuating circumstance that precludes completion of the class. Documentation validating the circumstance may be required.
- Late Work and Makeup Policies: I do not accept late work without extenuating circumstances.
- Academic Honesty Policy: JC has an academic honesty policy, which will be adhered to in this class. In essence, the policy requires that all work must be done by the student whose name it bears. The full policy can be accessed at http://www.jccmi.edu/policies/Academics/
- Failure: Plagiarism, the submission of another’s writing, whether directly copied or paraphrased, may result in a failing grade and can be grounds for removal from class. Cases of plagiarism are dealt with by the instructor on an individual basis; the instructor will make decisions regarding the student’s ability to correct the problem. All cases of plagiarism are reported to the Office of the Academic Dean.
Course Organization: We will spend approximately four weeks on each of the three essays, reserving the last two or three weeks for portfolio revisions.

Writing Help: When seeking outside of class help with your writing, bring the following to the conference:

- a copy of the assignment
- your draft or work thus far
- specific areas with which you need help

- Instructor Support: I am available on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays for individual conferences. Arrange the conference time during class sessions.
- Writing Fellows: Hours and days to be announced.
- Center for Student Success (CSS) Writing Tutors: located in Bert Walker Hall 125. For more information about the CSS go to http://www.jccmi.edu/success/.

Caveat: I reserve the right to alter the posted course schedule in case of need course adjustments. I will warn you in advance should I need to change deadlines or assignments.

Calendar: A calendar for major assignments will be posted on our JetNet course site.

Please let me know how I can help you help yourself learn to write more compellingly, convincingly, and concisely.
