It is always a good practice to clean and disinfect shopping bags after each use, and to pay extra attention to bags used to carry raw animal products.

Source: North Carolina State University

For more information: Visit mijackson.org/hd (Jackson County Health Dept.)