

Perception Data

Students

1. Due to the cognitive and medical involvement student perception is not applicable.
2. Due to the cognitive and medical involvement student perception is not applicable.
3. Due to the cognitive and medical involvement student perception is not applicable.
4. Due to the cognitive and medical involvement student perception is not applicable.
5. Due to the cognitive and medical involvement student perception is not applicable.
6. Due to the cognitive and medical involvement student perception is not applicable.

Parents

1. Our parents plan an intricate part of their child's program through the IEP process.
2. Overall parents have a positive perception of the support for student learning.
3. Overall parents have a positive perception of our school climate.
4. Overall parents have a positive perception of parent/school relationships.
5. Overall parents have a positive perception of resource management.
6. Parents appreciate our support we have contracted services to support our parents even in the home environment.
7. Parents would like additional therapies that we are not able to provide for example speech therapy every day.

Teachers/Staff

1. The teachers have high regard for the quality of instructional programming and we are actively involved in decision making.
2. The staff feels they have been give lots of support for student learning.
3. The school climate is inviting and loving for our students.
4. The teachers/staff feel they are supported by administration
5. The school climate is excellent as our staff is so dedicated.
6. Areas of improvement identified are to continue staff development in the area of technology.

Community

1. Our community has always supported the largest millage levied in Michigan for Special Education students.
2. The community is supportive financially through donations.
3. The community feels we have a positive school climate.
4. The community feels we have appositve community/school relationship.
5. Community is very generous to our school. We continually received donations.
6. Community sees us as providing a humanitarian service to our developmentally disabled citizens.
7. Some people do not understand all the services we provide.