

FEDERAL STUDENT GRANT PROGRAMS

StudentAid.gov

The federal government provides grant funds for students attending colleges, career schools, and universities. Grants, unlike loans, do not have to be repaid. The major federal student aid grant programs are briefly described below.

| Federal Grant Program | Program Details | Annual Award (subject to change) |
|---|---|---|
| Federal Pell Grant | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Generally awarded to undergraduate students who are financially needy and who have not earned a bachelor's or graduate degree Federal Pell Grant eligibility is limited to 12 semesters, or the equivalent | Up to $5,645 |
| Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Awarded to undergraduate students who have exceptional financial need and who have not earned a bachelor's or graduate degree Federal Pell Grant recipients receive priority Not all colleges participate in the FSEOG program Funds depend on availability at the college; apply by your college's deadline | Up to $4,000 |
| Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grant | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> For undergraduate, postbaccalaureate, or graduate students who are or will be taking coursework necessary to become elementary or secondary teachers Must agree to serve, for a minimum of four years (within eight years of completing academic program), as a full-time teacher in a high-need field in a school or educational service agency that serves low-income students Must attend a participating college and meet certain academic achievement requirements Failure to complete the teaching service commitment will result in the grant funds being converted to a Direct Unsubsidized Loan that must be repaid For more information, see the TEACH Grant Fact Sheet at www.teachgrant.ed.gov | Up to $3,716 Required budget cuts have resulted in reduced annual award amounts for TEACH Grants.
